Course Policies

E-MAIL:
All students are required to maintain and access their University of Memphis (@memphis.edu) email account. You will receive all official course correspondence at this email account. Any inability to receive incoming mail in a timely fashion (e.g., not regularly checking your email, having a “full mailbox” condition, etc.) is the student’s responsibility.

Attendance:
This is a standard classroom course and class time will be used for a variety of purposes other than reviewing factual information. Therefore it is important that you stay active and engaged through consistent attendance all semester. Your full engagement in the class begins on the first day of the semester and should be maintained until the last assignment is submitted. For students receiving federal student loans, any lack of engagement in the course may be treated as non-attendance and potentially impact access to student loans in the future. Note that class attendance will contribute to your overall grade in the semester as noted under ‘Grading’ in this syllabus.

Adding/Dropping:
If you have questions about adding or dropping classes, please refer to the Registrar’s website.

Academic Honesty
The University of Memphis has clear codes regarding cheating and classroom misconduct. If interested, you may refer to the Student Handbook section on academic misconduct for a discussion of these codes. Note that using a “Solutions Manual” is considered cheating. Should your professor have evidence that using a “Solutions Manual” has occurred, he/she may take steps as described on the campus’ Office of Student Conduct website (opens in new window). If you have any questions about academic integrity or plagiarism, you are strongly encouraged to review the Fogelman College's Website on Academic Integrity (opens in new window).

Participation
To be successful in the course as a student, you must stay active and involved throughout the entire semester. Students are expected to participate in all interactive aspects of the course. You should also regularly communicate with the instructor as part of your overall learning experience, check into the course frequently for announcements (usually in the course home page), and actively participate in classroom discussions (both formal and informal). Note that your overall level of participation will contribute to your final grade in the semester as noted under ‘Grading’ in this syllabus.

Classroom or Online Behavior:
All participants in the course should be considerate of the other course participants and treat them (as well as their opinions) with respect. The class will operate under the assumption that any and all feedback offered is positive in nature and that the intentions of the person(s) providing feedback are strictly honorable. Insensitivity in this area will not be tolerated.
Make-Up/Late Policy

There will not be make-up assignments. Special accommodations may be possible if you contact your instructor before the respective due date, however this is not a guarantee. Late assignments will not be accepted. If an emergency should arise, it is the student’s responsibility to contact the instructor prior to the deadline to discuss the matter. A deadline extension will be considered only if all of the following conditions are met:
(1) Extreme emergency and (2) Instructor contacted prior to the due date.

Last minute, extra credit essays at the end of the Semester
There will be no last minute extra-credit opportunities. Please do not ask. Do the work as it is assigned and stay ahead of deadlines. Time management is as valuable of a skill to learn as financial management.

Inclement Weather:

In the event that inclement weather requires the cancellation of classes at The University of Memphis, local radio and television media will be immediately notified. Additionally, The University of Memphis has established an Inclement Weather Hotline at 678-0888 as well as TigerText (opens in new window), an emergency alert text messaging service to students, faculty and staff. This optional service is used in the event of an on-campus emergency, an unscheduled university closing, or a delay or cancellation of classes due to, for instance, inclement weather. Additional information on TigerText (opens in new window).

Syllabus Changes:

The instructor reserves the right to make changes as necessary to this syllabus. If changes are necessitated during the term of the course, the instructor will immediately notify students of such changes both by individual email communication and posting both notification and nature of change(s) on the course bulletin board.
