Dr. Barbara D. Davis, MGMT 3510 Course Coordinator

Course Description:
Communication theory applied to business and the professions; emphasis on effective writing; presentation of written and oral case solutions, letters, memoranda, reports, and employment applications; selection and use of research sources; consideration of business ethics, technology, and intercultural communication

Prerequisites/Co-Requisites:
Students must have earned a minimum of 45 credit hours and have met specific course prerequisites with a minimum grade of “C” to be eligible for all 3000 and 4000 level courses. In addition to these requirements, students seeking a degree in the Fogelman College of Business and Economics must have (1) completed all required lower division business courses with a minimum grade of “C” in each; (2) minimum of 2.25 GPA (2.5 for accounting majors) in all required lower division business courses and MATH 1830 or 1910, and (3) 45 hours of course work including MATH 1830 or 1910, COMM 2381 and 9 hours of English (See B.B.A. Degree Requirements-General Requirements). Non-Business majors must have junior or senior standing and have met specific prerequisites of courses. Students are responsible for ensuring that requirements are met; otherwise, administrative drop actions may be implemented. Students wishing to enroll in this course must have successfully passed MIS 2749, or an equivalent. PLEASE NOTE: This is a writing intensive course!

Required Texts (and Related Materials):
Course Key: MTPNB8NNP80X
Student Registration URL: Cengage Course Website (new browser)

Cengage Unlimited (a new purchase option) offers access to Cengage’s digital eBooks for ALL courses you may be taking that requires Cengage textbooks and products for $119.99 per term (extended subscriptions also available). Purchase access to Cengage Unlimited in the bookstore (https://www.bkstr.com/memphisstore/home/en) or at https://www.cengage.com/unlimited using ISBN: 9780357700006. Other options with a Cengage Unlimited purchase include: rental print textbooks for an extra $7.99 with free shipping as well as an option to purchase books to keep for an additional cost.

IMPORTANT NOTE:
A NEW textbook must be purchased to access the publisher’s online materials. Register the ACCESS code included in the book, then input your COURSEKEY provided by your instructor for this section of the course. Used books will require that you purchase a separate ACCESS code, which costs as much as a new book.

Course Objectives:
To develop an understanding of the theory (principles) of effective communication and the ability to apply these principles to the solving of management problems, especially in the form of written business messages. Although the emphasis is not on grammar, spelling, etc., all work is expected to be correct in these areas.

By successfully completing this course, students will be able to:
- Understand and discuss the communication process
- Plan, organize, and develop a variety of business messages that display appropriate tones and demonstrate the use of correct appearance of business documents
- Discuss and use listening, oral and nonverbal communication skills
- Prepare and deliver an effective oral presentation using Microsoft PowerPoint
- Gather, organize, and evaluate data to write business reports
- Prepare employment communication messages, including a letter of application and resume
- Understand, discuss, and participate in effective team, interpersonal, and intercultural communication
- Use critical thinking, apply ethical approaches to solving business communication problems, and exhibit desirable work traits (business etiquette), which promote success in business

Academic Course Requirements:
The following topics and minimum assignments are included in all sections of MGMT 3510:
- Textbook online graded quizzes, language reviews, or textbook online assignments
- Informational/routine message
- Unpleasant/bad news message
- Persuasive message (letter of application can substitute for this message)
- Employment communication (letter of application and resume minimum requirements)
- Student individual oral presentations (formal and informal)
- Research activity which demonstrates use of gathering, organizing, evaluating, and synthesizing information into report format using graphics as well as APA style documentation – Require minimum 5 DS pages for body of research paper and 3 sources.
- Business etiquette (See Etiquette under Resources) and team communication activity
FCBE Academic Internship Credit:
In FCBE, all majors offer an academic internship course option as a substitution for a required elective in a student’s major. To apply for academic credit, students must obtain an internship highly related to their major, register prior to the start of their internship and have their internship approved by departmental internship faculty. To review the requirements for applying for academic credit, visit http://www.memphis.edu/professional/internships/academic_credit.php. Students should allow approximately two weeks for the review and processing of an academic internship application through the Fogelman Internship Network.

Grading and Evaluation Criteria:
The final grade will be determined by the number of points earned on examinations, class assignments (including oral and group presentations), and written assignments (memos, letters, and reports). Some class and written assignments will be completed during class time and without prior notice; others will be completed out of class.

Grading Scale:
Final course grades are earned according to the following table:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Point Range</th>
<th>Assigned Grade</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>90-100 Points</td>
<td>A</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>80-89 Points</td>
<td>B</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>70-79 Points</td>
<td>C</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>60-69 Points</td>
<td>D</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Under 60 Points</td>
<td>F</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Your overall grade for the semester is based on how well you perform on the grade components listed in the table below.

Summary of Grade Activities:
Points earned on the assessed activities will be distributed as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Deliverable</th>
<th>Value</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Assignments</td>
<td>40%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Exams</td>
<td>15%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reports (Oral/Written/Group)</td>
<td>45%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total</td>
<td>100%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The total points you earn in each grade component of the course will be divided by the total points possible for that component. The appropriate percentage will then be calculated for each component to determine your final percentage/grade. (Plus/Minus [+] grading system will not be used in this class).
Fogelman College: Learning Outcomes for Your Degree

This course is designed to help you to meet the overall learning objectives for the BBA degree offered by the Fogelman College. The Fogelman College has established the following learning goals for all students successfully completing the BBA degree:

- Graduates will be effective communicators.
- Graduates will demonstrate critical thinking skills.
- Graduates will be knowledgeable about ethical factors in the business environment.
- Graduates will be knowledgeable about the global business environment.
- Graduates will be proficient users of business presentation and analysis technology.

Assignments:
Access to information to complete each assignment along with grading sheets that list requirements will be provided as needed. Due dates are listed on the class schedule. All assignments must be keyed and have the assignment evaluation sheet attached. Software requirements are Microsoft Office Word or Adobe Acrobat Reader and Microsoft PowerPoint only. If you don’t have MS Word, save your documents as a rich text file (rtf).

IMPORTANT NOTE:
Review/familiarize yourself with the Homework Guide for this class. Follow directions and proofread your work. Following basic directions and proofreading are required for your work to be graded. Proofreading what you write includes, but is not limited to, correct spelling, proper grammar/English usage, and correct sentence and paragraph construction. Assignments must be submitted in class, on the date due, during the class period, and at the time the instructor makes the request. DO NOT put assignments under the professor’s door or in her mailbox. There are NO provisions for make-up work. Credit will not be given for assignments with technology malfunction issues or for incomplete, incorrect, or plagiarized assignments. Due dates and deadlines have been established for each graded assignment. In this course, deadlines are taken very seriously. Please do not wait until the last day to submit assignments or to take quizzes and exams. If an emergency should arise, the schedule of (deductible) points outlined in the Homework Guide will be applied to late assignments worth more than 25 points.

You may submit assignments early (prior approval required) through appropriate communication mediums. Early assignments or those submitted outside of class MUST be received by the professor before the scheduled class time.

Assignments/exams will be returned for your review. Assignments/exams physically reviewed during a class period must be returned to the instructor during the same class period. Failure to return any assignment/-exam as indicated will result in that assignment/exam being disallowed for grade computation. After graded assignments have been reviewed and returned as indicated above, any request to reconsider points earned or missed on a graded assignment / exam must be in writing and submitted within 5 days of the professor providing the graded assignment/exam to the class.
Exams/Final Exam:
Exams will generally consist of true-false, multiple-choice, short answer, essay, and completion questions as well as application exercises. The final exam is optional and comprehensive.

Quizzes:
There are 14 quizzes to be taken during the semester on the publisher’s website (Cengage). See the “due dates” calendar in eCourseware and on the publisher’s website, or the Class Schedule. Quizzes are to be taken by logging into the Cengage website using your textbook Access Code and CourseKey for this class.

Administrative Course Requirements:
Class Attendance.
Enrollment in this course obligates the student not only for prompt completion of all work assigned but also for punctual and regular attendance and for participation in any class discussion that may occur. Absences do not absolve him/her of this responsibility. It is the student's responsibility to keep informed concerning all assignments made and information presented in class, but not by contacting the professor for information about what was missed during class or requesting that the professor review material missed during the student’s absence. If you are absent during a scheduled EXAM, the FINAL EXAM will substitute for the missed exam. You can only use the FINAL EXAM to replace ONE Exam.

Absence from more than 10 percent of the scheduled class sessions is considered excessive. If you must exceed this 10 percent maximum, withdrawing from the course should be considered. Absences are NOT penalized; therefore, the professor does not grant excused absences. Credit for class related etiquette requires that you arrive on time and stay (in class) the entire period.

Posting of Grades.
Grades will be posted to the eCourseware site; however, you should keep an accurate record of your progress in this course.

Academic Integrity and Student Conduct.
Expectations for academic integrity and student conduct are described in detail on the website of the Office of Student Judicial and Ethical Affairs. Please review this information related to student accountability at Student Accountability (new browser). Academic misconduct consists of but is not limited to: disruptive classroom behavior, plagiarism, cheating and other forms of academic dishonesty. I will expect students to be aware of these guidelines and to conduct themselves accordingly. Conduct which is considered disruptive as well as equated to a class absence and is a basis for ejection from the class includes (but is not limited to) arriving late for class, leaving early, leaving and returning during the class period, having telephones or pagers which ring or beep in class, using electronic devices (texting, surfing web, etc.) in class, and bringing children or other non-enrolled guests to class.

Turnitin Statement:
The “Turnitin” technology is embedded within the elearn Courseware system dropbox option. This electronic detection method evaluates the originality of your ideas as well as the proper use and attribution of sources. By taking this course, you agree that all assignments may undergo this review process and that the assignment may be included as a source document in Turnitin.com's restricted access database solely for the purpose of detecting plagiarism in such documents. Any assignment not submitted according to the procedures given by the professor may be penalized or may not be accepted at all.” (University of Memphis, Office of Legal Counsel, October 17, 2005).

Communication Protocol.
See the professor during office hours rather than publicly discussing any personal situation during class or in the 15 minute interval between classes.

Electronic Devices.
The professor reserves the right to prohibit the use of electronic devices during class. All electronic devices must be put in silent mode during class.

DRS Statement.
Any student who anticipates physical or academic barriers based on the impact of a disability is encouraged to speak with me privately. Students with disabilities should also contact Disability Resources for Students (DRS) at 110 Wilder Tower, 901-678-2880 and online (opens in new browser). DRS coordinates access and accommodations for students with disabilities.

Crisis Management.
The U of M Office of Crisis Management (new browser), 678-3692, email: be_prepared@memphis.edu, has established a comprehensive emergency and disaster preparedness program to protect its people, resources, and environment. Sign up here (new browser) to receive Tiger Text emergency alert messages.

Etiquette:
MGMT 3510 business students are given priority for enrollment in Business Etiquette Dining Sessions. The session (2 hours) includes reception with hors d’oeuvres, 4 course meal, free etiquette handbook, and a pocket card for $10 registration. Sessions are held fall and spring semesters. You MUST be a Fogelman College of Business and Economics major to attend a session. Register through the Professional Development Center (new browser).

Final Exam Schedule:
The final exam for this class will be scheduled according to the Registrar’s academic calendar website (new browser).

Inclement Weather:
In the event that inclement weather requires the cancellation of classes at The University of Memphis, local radio and television media will be immediately notified. Additionally, The University of Memphis has established an Inclement Weather Hotline at 678-0888 as well as LiveSafe (new browser), an emergency alert text messaging service to students, faculty and staff.
This optional service is used in the event of an on-campus emergency, an unscheduled university closing, or a delay or cancellation of classes due to, for instance, inclement weather. Additional information on LiveSafe (new browser).

Syllabus Changes:
The instructor reserves the right to make changes as necessary to this syllabus. If changes are necessitated during the term of the course, the instructor will immediately notify students of such changes both by individual email communication and posting both notification and nature of change(s) on the course bulletin board.

NOTE: Review locations of tabs and links on eCourseware as recent updates may have reconfigured the site. Every link in this syllabus is active. If you are unable to access the site by clicking on the link, please copy and paste the link into your browser and hit enter.
